

SETTING THE RECORD STRAIGHT: PUBLIC RESPONSE TO P.A. BELTRAMI

Dear brothers and sisters of the Unification Movement,

Many of you have been following the dialogue between myself and P.A. Beltrami, which began with a letter from P.A. (secreted inside a book) given to Dr. Hyun Jin Preston Moon on his birthday. Below, you will first find P.A.'s latest "letter", followed by my response. AND since there are many references to quotes from Father Moon, the Divine Principle, etc, in my message today, I am including an earlier response of mine via this link HERE for those who would like to access those important references.

Subject: Re: Latest exchange between Howard Self and PA Beltrami July 12, 2025

To: Howard C. Self

Dear Howard,

I hope this email finds you and your family well.

The so-called "continuing conversation" you've been sending out to a private list is having an effect—though perhaps not the one you intended. As I mentioned earlier, I don't know who you're sending these emails to, especially without my consent. However, several people who know me have reached out, either by phone or email, saying I'm being unfairly attacked by you—without justification.

Be that as it may, separately, I'll be forwarding you another message from someone who, I believe, is still a mutual friend.

Before you continue sending out lengthy dissertations filled with your interpretations of past events—often including disparaging remarks about my character or choices—I'd like to propose something:

Since you don't seem interested in my original intent, which was to explore ways of opening a respectful dialogue among the True Children, I'm officially ending this "continuing conversation." I also ask that you refrain from distributing our private correspondence to individuals whose identities and affiliations I don't have access to.

Sharing private exchanges in this way, especially without mutual consent, could be seen as a breach of trust—if not confidentiality—and an unwise approach to fostering understanding or unity. Many members, especially those who lived through the tumultuous final years of True Father's life, still carry vivid memories of his words and actions.

True Father recognized that not all of his children shared the same heart or the same depth of understanding of God's Heart. That's why, at the time, many of us wondered why he insisted on holding three separate coronation ceremonies for the couple he had chosen as his heir and successor.

Regardless of what Hak Ja Han stated under sworn testimony or what Preston Moon is currently saying, it was True Father who clearly and unmistakably declared that his younger son had the deepest heart among all his children.

Time and again, we are placed in the difficult position of having to choose between what True Father actually said and did—or someone else's interpretation of it.

Wishing the best to you and your family,

Warm regards,

PierAngelo Beltrami

Response from Howard Self:

Introduction: Why This Conversation Should Be Public and Not Private

Dear P.A.,

In your private reply above, two grievances stand out. First, your disapproval that our exchange was made public; second, your attempt to dismiss my response as merely "personal opinion." You would prefer to contain this matter behind closed doors, I know, but such obfuscation is neither just nor acceptable. I have explained before the reasons it was a public matter, once you surreptitiously wrote directly to Hyun Jin Nim, a public figure. What we are discussing here is not a trivial interpersonal matter—our discussion concerns the integrity of central Providential elements which are most important to all Unification members. These are:

God and His providence, the identity and work of God's son, the Adamic figure, and the eternal spiritual destinies of our brothers and sisters.

We are dealing with a schism caused by the Luciferian cabal who shook the spiritual core of the entire Unification Movement, violated every lofty ideal and all that is sacred, and led countless members astray through a web of deception and fraud. You may seek the security of silence. I do not. As Hyun Jin Nim taught us, we are to be our brothers' keepers. The members deserve truth, not falsehoods disguised as loyalty. It is for their sake—and for the sake of Heaven—that I speak publicly and without reservation.

You accused me in an earlier letter, of using your letters as a "pretext for frustration." Let me disabuse you of this notion: this is not a reaction born of emotion. It is righteous indignation—born of two decades of witnessing lies that destroy the spiritual lives of our Blessed Families, falsehoods masquerading as truth, and satanic traitors parading themselves as saints. What I write here is not frustration—it is a call to conscience because the gravest sins of those who tried to destroy the Adamic figure, who is God's son, have taken the entire UM membership down the path of damnation.

The Most Egregious Betrayal in Providential History

You fail to grasp the gravity of what has occurred. In the annals of providential history, no betrayal has been as egregious and sinful as the Unificationists' rejection of the Fourth Adam. It surpasses even the Israelites' rejection of Jesus or the Christians' persecution of Father. Why? Because both the Jews and the Christians failed to recognize God's son due to the failure of their John-the-Baptist-type figures. The Jews should have come to accept Jesus through John the Baptist as the returning Elijah. The Christians in Korea, prepared by suffering and faith, through their John the Baptist figures should have united with Father, who comes without any connection to the Fall and was born into the respected and faithful Christian Moon lineage. Most importantly, Father was carrying out his messianic mission. In both cases, the providential history was delayed, and tremendous indemnity had to be paid because of the fallen people's failure to recognize God's chosen son.

In the case of Hyun Jin Nim however, the proclamation did not come from a John-the-Baptist figure. In fact, it was Father himself, whom even you, P.A., recognize as the Messiah, who publicly and unequivocally testified to and acknowledged Hyun Jin Nim to be the Fourth Adam, God's anointed son and the heir to Father's messianic mission and the center of the providence from 1998 onward. Father did not just affirm Hyun Jin Nim's providential position—he went out of his way to restructure the entire movement around Hyun Jin Nim. He transferred his full authority to him, recognizing his anointing from God, and offered him the foundation of the entire Unification Movement he had created so that Hyun Jin Nim could lead the providence forward in the era of Father-and-Son Cooperation and in the realm of the Fourth Adam.

This was not symbolic, conditional, or performative. It was the most significant providential milestone and the greatest day for God, Father, and the entire world. Father called it “a cosmic event” in his speech on the day of Hyun Jin Nim's appointment in 1998.

And yet, you and those who have been poisoned by the satanic lies and machination of the Luciferian group rejected Hyun Jin Nim. Worse still, you aligned with the very forces who sought to destroy him. The cabal led by Sean, Justin, Mother Han, and corrupt church leadership did not merely cast doubt on Hyun Jin Nim—they publicly and viciously humiliated, accused, and even tried to crucify him in the most vile and evil ways imaginable. These attacks included the 30 court cases on three continents against Hyun Jin Nim and his associates (all of which FFWPU lost)!

You claim to follow Father? Then how do you justify rejecting and even trying to kill the Fourth Adam whom Father himself testified to as God's son whom He anointed? That is why the sin of the Unificationists is the greatest in providential history. Father himself, in his final videotaped HDH, labeled the Unificationists "worse than Lucifer." That condemnation is not metaphor. It is spiritual fact. And with such grave sin there will be a commensurate judgment from Heaven—not only to the leaders who directly committed the crime, but even to those who were complicit in it.

Truth Is Not Relative

P.A., another error is your insistence that truth is somehow subjective—that my extensive citation of Father's most significant public words, speeches, and providential instructions amounts to mere "opinion." You are, in effect, saying that everything is relative—that there is no absolute truth, only perspectives. That stance is evasive and profoundly misguided against Principle. Truth, especially providential truth is rooted in Principle, affirmed and made manifest through the clear words and actions of Father himself.

To treat these as just differing “opinions” is to cheapen the Principle and the absolute standard that Father lived and died to establish. How dare you dismiss what is absolute and providentially most significant as just being my opinion?

Father’s proclamations—especially on matters of succession—were crystal clear. I did not offer personal interpretation. I cited direct quotes, historical facts, and public records.

Once again, it was Father, in 1998 upon the dawn of the new providential age after the end-of-the-church era, who explicitly stated publicly and unequivocally that Hyun Jin Nim is the Fourth Adam, the central figure of the Father and Son era. It was Father who reconfigured the entire providential foundation around Hyun Jin Nim, instructing all members and leaders that they are within the realm of the Fourth Adam, who is responsible to realize Foundation Day, establish God’s sovereignty, and settle the ideals of True Parents and True Family. It was Father who transferred the authority to give the Blessing to Hyun Jin Nim in 2000. It was Father who explicitly told all the top UC leaders to unite with his son, Hyun Jin Nim. It was Father who said that all Blessed Families, as well as True Family members (including Mrs. Han), now must come to Father through Hyun Jin Nim. It was Father who entrusted Hyun Jin Nim with the entire Movement’s foundation and physical assets in furtherance of the Adamic mission. And it was Father who put Hyun Jin Nim at the center of God’s providence to lead it forward toward the goal of realizing Foundation Day. This was not an opinion, it was the direct, recorded guidance of Father himself.

P.A., you claim to follow Father's words. Then do so. Or have the honesty to admit that you follow someone else.

Sean's depth of heart?

You claim that Sean had the "deepest heart" among his children. Maybe someone heard something to that effect in a particular moment—but if so, where is the full record? Where is the date, the context, the original Korean transcript? And even if anyone ever made such a comment, we must look at the fruit. A single remark—if it even happened—does not override the years of consistent direction Father gave regarding Hyun Jin Nim as his heir and the Fourth Adam.

Sean's actual conduct tells a very different story. When elevated by Mother, in collusion with the corrupt leaders, he heaped divine praise upon her, calling her the "Wife of God," the satanic notion which Father completely rejects. When she later casts him aside, he spews vitriol and curses her as the "Whore of Babylon." This is the same mother who moved heaven and earth to illegitimately give him all the positions and have him deceptively participate in God's coronation ceremony in 2009 with an intent to turn it into Sean's coronation. What kind of son behaves so treacherously toward the very person who enabled his rise? Such behavior reveals not depth of heart, but that of pure maliciousness and depravity. This is not the mark of someone with the "deepest heart." It is the mark of someone who is immature, ungrateful, spiteful, opportunistic, treacherous, and bitter.

By contrast, Hyun Jin Nim—the one truly wronged—has never condemned his own mother, who is, in fact, the greatest betrayer against God, Father and Hyun Jin Nim. That nobility, fidelity, and filial piety reveals his true depth of heart and spiritual stature.

It does not take a genius to see through Sean, and Justin. Only the willfully blind would follow such individuals who violate and discard what should be most sacred in order to further their egos and satanic ambitions. There is no way someone like Sean could represent God or God's side. Do not even attempt to make that argument—it is frankly insulting and sickening. The sad truth is, the Sanctuary Church is a global embarrassment and a bad punchline. No one in the Unification Movement outside their sphere takes them seriously, and no one with a shred of spiritual discernment respects them.

Let us not forget that under Sean's control, Father's Hoondok sessions were suddenly cut short and video disbursement was eliminated. Why? Because Father was beginning to reveal the truth—his frustration with Sean, Justin, and Mrs. Han. Sean and the rest of the Luciferian cabal did not want the members to hear Father's truth. So, he silenced the voice of the very man he claims to be the Messiah.

You defend this. And you pretend to be neutral? The entire providential tragedy of the UC schism was built upon lies perpetuated by the Luciferian group, and especially by your Sean whom you adore.

The Unfolding of Heaven's Judgment

Even now, Heaven is beginning to render its judgment. The Only Begotten Daughter regime is unraveling under unprecedented legal scrutiny and financial collapse resulting from their corruption and incompetence. The FFWPU stands morally, spiritually and now financially bankrupt. The Presidential bribery scandal currently engulfing Korea is only the beginning of Heaven's judgment. Mrs. Han herself may soon face incarceration alongside her accomplices, Young-Ho Yoon, Wonju McDevitt and others. Young-Ho Yoon has already been arrested. Charges against him include embezzlement. This judgment is inevitable and will soon extend to those in the Sanctuary Church who participated in grave spiritual crimes.

Meanwhile, Hyun Jin Nim stands at the helm of Korea's largest grassroots reunification movement. He is celebrated in the media, embraced by all sectors of society, and acknowledged as a visionary leader on the world stage. That is Heaven's vindication! Why? Because he is God's true son who is carrying out God's providence. This is the fruit of God's blessing.

Path to Redemption Remains Open

P.A., despite the betrayal and the grave sin committed by Sean, Justin, Mrs. Han, and UC leaders and members, Hyun Jin Nim has not shut the door to the path of redemption for those willing to sincerely repent. Rejecting Hyun Jin Nim, who is an Adamic figure and who is the son of God, means rejecting Father and rejecting God himself. Hyun Jin Nim represents the hope of salvation for those who have sinned and are connected to the Fall, and the continuation of God's providence.

Hyun Jin Nim taught us clearly: we must be our brothers' keepers, and this public letter is precisely an expression of that commitment. Transparency and truthfulness are essential for all brothers and sisters to reconnect to God's providence through His anointed son, Hyun Jin Nim, and to open their eyes to the providential sins of Sean, Justin, Mrs. Han, and UC leaders and members.

Conclusion: Truth is Absolute

P.A., in this most critical moment of providential history—when truth is the dividing line between salvation and damnation—you and the Sanctuary Church, led by Sean and Justin, continue to peddle lies, distortions, and delusions. Sanctuary has built its entire narrative on falsehoods, propped up by propaganda and emotional manipulation.

Meanwhile, I have revealed the truth. Not with theories. Not with conjecture. And certainly, not with opinions. But with Father's own words. The very Father you claim to revere. The very Messiah you say you follow.

Father's complete and significant pronouncement recognizing Hyun Jin Nim as the Fourth Adam and all the aforementioned steps he took to ensure Hyun Jin Nim's success as an Adamic figure are incomparable to what Father said about Sean and Justin, or any one of his children, and even Mrs. Han. Instead, Father said the coronation ceremony was about God, not Sean. Father said he never appointed Justin to his position. Father never said he anointed Sean. Father said he has no wife. What we have, instead, is Father's condemnation—calling those who opposed his true heir (Hyun Jin Nim) and divided the True Family “worse than Lucifer.”

You bring up again the coronation as evidence for Sean as the heir. Show me one quote from Father's speech from the coronation ceremony where he legitimizes Sean as heir. You cannot—because it doesn't exist since the coronation ceremony was all about God and has nothing to do with Sean. Yet you prop up Sean's absurd kingship fantasies and Justin's manufactured revisionist history, all while attacking the very son Father entrusted with the providence.

P.A., you are not neutral. You are not a peacemaker. You are, wittingly or unwittingly, serving as a front for a fraud.

And that is why I speak publicly. Because I care about the eternal spiritual lives of yourself and the brothers and sisters who have been misled by people like you. I will not sit silently while delusional revisionists distort the providence and drag others down with them.

The truth matters. Principle matters. And I will not rest until that truth is known. Let me state once again, clearly and unequivocally: The truth is not my “personal opinion”. Father's explicit words about Hyun Jin Nim's providential position and role are absolute, not relative. P.A., it is time for you and everyone who has fallen victim to deception to awaken, repent, and realign with God's true providence. This is the only path to salvation. Like I said, Hyun Jin Nim has left the door to redemption open for all who will take it. But you need to walk that path. Nobody else can do that for you. May Heaven lead you to the light of truth.

In God's Love,

Howard C. Self
